Show Pass Update Information

1. Every trainer must have a USEF card. No show passes allowed.
2. Exhibitors (Adult/Junior) and Owners are allowed ONE show pass per year. It must be applied for on line and proof of same given to show secretary. If proof is not available, you must join USEF and complete Safe Sport Training (Junior Exhibitors exempt from Safe Sport).
3. Horses owned by a Business or Farm must have a separate USEF membership and are exempt from Safe Sport Training UNLESS the owners name also appears on the papers. Business or Farm may apply for ONE show pass per year.
4. All persons in possession of or applying for a USEF card MUST complete the Safe Sport Training PRIOR to exhibiting in a class. No exceptions.
5. If applying for USEF at a show, it should be done on line where the Safe Sport Training is available. If utilizing a paper form at the show, an additional fee of $25.00 is required by USEF and the Safe Sport Training must be completed prior to exhibiting in a class.
6. Parents signing as trainers for their junior exhibitors MUST be a member of USEF and complete Safe Sport. No show pass allowed. If they are signing ONLY as a Parent/Guardian they do not need to be a member of USEF.
7. Opportunity/Exhibition classes are exempt from USEF; however, if an exhibitor enters these classes and then a regular USEF rated class, they must be a member of USEF (or allowed ONE show pass per year).
8. Anyone entering a class restricted to Amateurs MUST be a member of USEF. No show passes allowed.
